About Us

A Family Law Team Here to Serve You

At Gwendolyn J. Sterk and the Family Law Group, we believe that each client is an integral part of our team. Together we strive toward preserving his or her best interests. A successful attorney-client relationship starts with good communication. Communication is the key to keeping our clients aware of each stage of their case and the related court process. We work diligently to provide our clients with efficient service and feel a strong ethical responsibility to inform and involve clients with every aspect of their litigation.
