WHAT IS THE ASSOCIATION OF OHIO COMMODORES?

The Association of Ohio Commodores is a group of individuals recognized by the Governor of Ohio with the state's most distinguished honor, The Executive Order of the Ohio Commodore.

The Association is a bipartisan, nonpartisan organization that currently boasts a diverse and dedicated membership of more than 500 men and women, including government officials, distinguished university presidents and administrators, banking and legal professionals, leaders of trade organizations, Chambers of Commerce, economic development organizations, and senior management executives of large, medium, and small companies from across Ohio in a wide variety of industries.

Founded by Ohio Governor James A. Rhodes in 1966 during a ceremony at the Perry Monument at Put-In Bay, the Association of Ohio Commodores has been in existence for over 58 years. Named for Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry, the hero of the Battle of Lake Erie in 1813, Governor Rhodes established the Executive Order of the Ohio Commodore to honor businessmen who accompanied him on Ohio's first international trade mission.

Today, the men and women appointed to the Executive Order of the Ohio Commodore are recognized for their contributions to economic development in communities across Ohio. Commodores are dedicated to assisting the State of Ohio in its advancement in all areas by contributing to the economic growth and development of the State and the greater prosperity of its citizens.
