

CREATING LOCAL PARTNERSHIPS TO END HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Coalition Build in Lancaster, PA

When: March 26, 2020, 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. (lunch provided)

Where: Eden Resort & Suites (222 Eden Rd. Lancaster, PA 17601)

What: A half-day summit hosted by the Pennsylvania Attorney General's Office, the Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association, the Pennsylvania Bus Association, Truckers Against Trafficking (TAT) and Busing on the Lookout (BOTL) to bring together key trucking, truck stop and bus industry stakeholders, with local, state and federal law enforcement and government agencies to work together to close loopholes to traffickers. The training will feature a Human Trafficking 101 presentation by the Pennsylvania Attorney General's Office, information on training resources for trucking, bus and truck stop companies, a presentation by a survivor-leader/field trainer and a law enforcement panel. The law enforcement panel will delve deeper into trends officers are seeing locally, share case studies, discuss victim-centered approaches and offer recommendations for industry partners wanting to get involved. There will be time at the end of the meeting for Q&A and discussion. This is a closed meeting. If you would like to attend, please register at the link below. For any questions, please contact Esther Goetsch at egoetsch@truckersagainsttrafficking.org.
