

JANUARY 4, 2021 • 9:00 AM

We are thrilled to announce that the AACA Museum, Inc. reopens to the public on Monday, January 4th at 9:00 am, ending a mandated closure that began on December 12th.

We look forward to hosting visitors with our featured exhibitions, including “Yeah, It’s Got a Hemi!,” “Minibike Mania,” and “Look! They Gave Me a Map: The Enduring Appeal of Road Maps.” Fortunately, this period was much shorter than the first time when we closed our doors for over 100 days.

And there's more to enjoy! Particularly during the week between Christmas and New Year's Day, many people visit the Museum to see our outstanding Holiday transformation. Since visits were not possible, we've decided to postpone the takedown of our Holiday decorations for one week allowing guests the opportunity to see all the hard work and creative energy our dedicated volunteers put into this annual project.

We look forward to seeing you at the Museum soon.

Happy New Year!

Jeffrey Bliemeister
Executive Director
