"The CERTS Act is the lifeline the industry needs to survive the pandemic."
- Peter Pantuso, president & CEO of ABA.

Help us drum up support for the CERTS Act!

Coronavirus Economic Relief for Transportation Services Act

The motorcoach industry needs help from the government to survive the fallout from the COVID-19 Pandemic.

We are desperately waiting for Congress to pass the CERTS Act, which would provide $10 billion in loans and grants to the nearly 3,0000 private motorcoach companies across the United States. Like us, most of them are family owned and struggling to get back on the road. Congress is about to adjourn and we need them to ACT NOW. The CERTS Act has the highest number of bi-partisan co-sponsors than any other relief bill in currently moving through Congress.

People need the affordable, safe transportation provided by companies like ours. Please help us spread the word by contacting your representatives at the Federal level and urging them to sign on if they have not yet done so. You can see the list of co-sponsors and check for your officials here. Click below to find out how to contact yours.

THE ENTIRE MOTORCOACH INDUSTRY IS IN JEOPARDY

According to the American Bus Association, the industry is operating at 20 percent of its annual capacity. Usually, motorcoach travel is a $15 billion per year industry, Optimistic predictions for 2020 is $4 billion total.

Anderson Coach & Travel is grateful to have 84 years of experience in the industry to rely on in these unprecedented times as well as the diversification of school bus operations.

There are a large number of companies in the U.S. at risk of closure. Experts say 40 percent of the roughly 3,000 private charter bus companies in the United States could be shut down by the end of the year.

In our area, we've seen Lakefront, Butler and Central Cab shut their doors permanently since March.

We need government aid. So far, we have been left out of every relief package while airlines and Amtrak received $100 billion. Urge your representatives to support the CERTS Act. (Coronavirus Economic Relief for Transportation Services Act). This bill would provide $10 billion in grants and loans for motorcoach companies.
