RE: Pennsylvania Bus Association Elects New Board Members

With the Annual Meeting being cancelled due to the pandemic, the Board of Directors carried out the annual election process via proxy ballots. The slate of candidates, circulated electronically to all voting members, yielded the following election results with a majority vote.

Congratulations to the re-elected directors; new members Todd Campbell, Ryan Nicklin, Brad Decker and to John Bailey and Tammy Wolf-Baker re-elected for officer positions of Chair and Vice-Chair. We thank the Nominating Committee for their work.

The Pennsylvania Bus Association (PBA) incorporated in 1923 as a nonprofit organization dedicated to representing the business and governmental interests of private bus companies operating in Pennsylvania. It is also the mission of PBA to promote travel by motorcoach, and tour and charter service provided by operator members in cooperation with and support for its travel industry supplier members.

The Association is committed to a Code of Ethics in which its members strive to offer the highest level of safety in their operations, quality in their services, and consumer protection for their customers.
