NEW PRAYERBOOK FORMAT BEGINS DECEMBER 11

PICK UP A SIDDUR AT OUR CHANUKAH GIFT BAG PICKUPS DECEMBER 4 AND 6

Dear Friends,

As you can imagine, we have learned a great deal about worshipping together online over these last several months. Even as the format has changed somewhat, we are struck by the reality that our community's values remain the same whether we worship in a Zoom room, in the Hershaft Lounge or in our sanctuary. No matter where we are, we love to see each other's faces, to share our worship and our lives.

Some recent feedback from our thoughtful and dynamic Communal Worship Committee has prompted us to re-think how we use our prayerbook, Mishkan Tefillah, during the service. Beginning on Friday, December 11, we will no longer share the words of the prayers on the screen. We have found that when we do so, we cannot see each other very well. Instead, we offer you a number of options so that you can join us in prayer:

1. Borrow a book from us! You can pick one up during our Chanukah Bag pickup on Friday, December 4 from 4:00-5:00 p.m. or Sunday, December 6 from 11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.. A volunteer will be onsite to help you check one out. If you are unable to drop by then, you can also make an appointment to pick up a book by contacting Fawn Mendel. You can return the book when we return to in-person worship. (Let us know if you are NOT physically able to come to the synagogue - we will be happy to drop off at your local address.)
2. If you wish to have your own copy, you can easily purchase a hardback version OR Kindle edition.
3. The publisher (CCAR Press) is making a free flipbook edition available here.

Whichever option you choose, we hope you will join us on Zoom each Friday evening and share Shabbat with us as frequently as possible. As the daylight hours get shorter, we find that praying together on Shabbat is a source of light and sustenance.

With prayers that we are all able to stay safe and healthy,
Cantor Chanin Becker & Rabbi Jeffrey Brown
