YOUR STUDENTS ARE MULTILINGUAL - SO ARE SCAMMERS

WHETHER YOUR STUDENTS SPEAK SPANISH, AMHARIC, OR FRENCH— SCAMMERS KNOW IT FLUENTLY.

FRAUD AFFECTS EVERY COMMUNITY, AND SCAMMERS CAN RUN THEIR SCAM IN THE LANGUAGE WE SPEAK AT HOME.

In this presentation, Ari Lazarus,a Consumer Education Specialist with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC),will share about free resources (available in a dozen languages) that you can give to your students and information on how your students can report scams and identity theft in multiple languages.

ARI LAZARUS

GUEST SPEAKER

8 NOVEMBER, 2024

2:00-3:00PM

Virtual via Zoom Link
Type this link in your browser:
https://bit.ly/ALDFTC

Or Scan the QR Code:

About Ari: Ari has worked extensively on education campaigns including online safety. His outreach work focuses on reaching older adults and college students giving them tips to avoid scams.

About the FTC: The FTC is a government agency responsible for protecting consumers from unfair business practices. It enforces antitrust laws, prevents deceptive advertising, and ensures fair competition in the marketplace.

DC Public Library