BILINGUAL STAFF INTERPRETER TRAINING

WHO SHOULD TAKE THIS COURSE

Participants in this program typically serve in other roles in an organization but because they are bilingual, they are often asked to provide language services for individuals seeking services (dual-role interpreters). Some may have had limited interpreter training before participating in the BSI training, but most have not had any formal training.

Participants completing the BSI are not qualified to provide language services outside of their organizations except to provide language access support for their clients in inter-agency transactions or sessions.

Priority acceptance is given for staff working at Virginia's Community Service Boards and the remainder slots will be given to other bilingual staff working in behavioral health settings.
