INTERNATIONAL RESCUE COMMITTEE

FROM COMPASSION TO ACTION

AN AMERICAN STORY

Join us for an inspiring evening celebrating courage, community, and the power of welcome.

The Virginia Museum of History & Culture
428 N Arthur Ashe Boulevard
Friday, September 25, 2026 – 6:30 PM to 9:00 PM

Event Features

- Welcome address from Kim Dean-Anderson, Senior Associate Director of Community Relationships at the Bonner Center for Civic Engagement at the University of Richmond
- First public screening of a documentary, produced by a University of Richmond student, featuring IRC clients and their stories of resilience and belonging
- Live Q&A featuring participants from the film
- Keynote address from Mark Pryor, a dedicated humanitarian, who will speak to the broader global story of refuge, resilience, and the ongoing work of welcome
- Reception with hors d'oeuvres and drinks to follow the event program

Scan the QR code to purchase your tickets and learn more

https://tinyurl.com/IRCRichmondTickets