Invite you to join us for

Reverse Tashlich

Sunday, September 10, 11:45 AM - 12:45 PM
(Immediately after Religious School)

On Rosh Hashanah, it is customary to symbolically cast away our sins by throwing bread crumbs in a body of water during a Tashlich service. Thus, we are seeking forgiveness and a fresh start for the new year.

At Reverse Tashlich, we do the opposite. Ohev children and adults are invited to join together to remove our "sins" from the water and land to foster a sense of responsibility for our environment. Together, we will clean up around our local Ironwood Creek and the green areas near Ohev's parking lot and Addisville Road.

Gloves, bags and snacks will be provided. Please wear closed-toe shoes.
