“Megan Gaddis, originally from Placer County, has lived in the Chico area for the past 13 years. She currently resides in Vina, CA with her 4-year old son Logan. Motherhood, friends, family, animals, and work keep her busy as well as her love for cooking, gardening, and staying active. Megan graduated from CSU Chico with a BA in Criminal Justice in 2013. Her passion for helping people has led her down a winding professional path. Her current and most esteemed position as the Resource Developer for the Arc of Butte County allows her to advocate for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities and provide support to their families. Her goals, both personally and professionally, involve bringing people together within the community to promote the greater good. She strives to help others reach their fullest potential and seeks to make genuine connections within the Soroptimist organization.”
