    - I can write something up for DIBI.
    - There isn't much to report or write about for the 100th year locally, but there is some information on the SIA website. Is there a possibility of a small column (200 words or so) on the upcoming 100-year celebration?
    - We are working on our in-person meetings as we speak. I have a couple of ladies helping me sort of details. I will write something up when we know more.
    - Let's ask a delegate to write something up on SNR.
    - I will write something for moving forward and my vision.

100 Year Legacy – Sara & Bonnie

- First, the 100-Year Legacy Project is moving forward, slowly. The GSNC has partnered with the Chico State Women in Construction on the project. There is not much happening right now, due to COVID delays, permit delays, etc. Bonnie has agreed to write a press release for the GSNC/SIC/Chico State collaboration once it gets closer to actually happening. Stay tuned...
