William Tefteller has been busy enjoying retirement after a 32-year career in the US Air Force. He has been a member of OLLI in Chico for the past twelve years and has taught the foreign policy class called Great Decisions since 2009. In addition, he served as the Curriculum committee chair for two years and the Facilities team leader for the past five years. He was instrumental in designing and building the multimedia systems for the four classrooms at The Social complex where the majority of OLLI classes are held. William also leads the OLLI Advisory Council, designed to assist Program Director, Ann Nikolai, with the care and feeding of one of the most successful chapters in the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute.

Louise Cummins moved to Chico in January 2017 coming here from Lubbock, Texas. While she is a recent Californian, she is not new to Osher Lifelong Learning or OLLI. In Lubbock, she helped to establish the OLLI at Texas Tech University in 2008. While living in Lubbock she was the founding director and paid staff member of the Volunteer Center of Lubbock serving as its director for 12 years. She served as president of the Texas Association of Volunteer Centers and as president of the Lubbock Community Foundation. Since moving to Chico Louise serves on the OLLI Advisory Council and is affiliated with the League of Women Voters and AAUW
