PROXIMITY PARK

ELEGANTLY REMODELED 1917 COLONIAL REVIVAL NEAR THE GROVE PARK INN

Located in the stylish Proximity Park Historic District of Grove Park, this home beautifully balances Old World glamour with modern upgrades. Upon entering, a grand staircase welcomes you into a home filled with light from large windows and glass doors, featuring hardwood floors throughout. The living room boasts a large fireplace and custom, oversized glass doors leading to a covered porch. The formal dining room is open to a sleek, modern chef's kitchen with custom wood cabinetry, high-end stainless steel appliances, gas stove, microwave drawer, island, and quartz countertops. A service staircase leads to the upper floor. The main-level primary bedroom includes a fireplace and an ensuite bathroom featuring a clawfoot tub with garden views, a walk-in marble shower, and beautiful tile work. Upstairs is a second primary bedroom, two more bedrooms, two bathrooms, a sunroom surrounded with windows on three sides and a brightly lit laundry room with garden views. The versatile lower level includes a flex room, two full baths, and a private two-bedroom apartment, plus ample storage. Outside, the professionally landscaped grounds are a beautiful oasis featuring low-maintenance, mature landscaping and artisanal stone patios. There is a front parking pad for multiple vehicles, plus a side driveway with backyard access. The location offers both privacy and convenience—close to several restaurants, two bakeries, the Omni Grove Park Inn and Spa, three City parks, and the world-famous Blue Ridge Parkway.
