With the recent political polarization of the nation and the current law enforcement climate, major protests and civil unrest have been at the forefront of concerns for law enforcement.

Please join us for an in-depth discussion on civil unrest with two nationally renowned subject matter experts, NYPD Deputy Inspector (ret.) Anthony J. Raganella and Pennsylvania State Police Major (ret.) Mark Lomax, on Tuesday October 27, 2020, from 8am to 12pm (CST) via the Zoom platform.

Presenter — Deputy Inspector (ret.) Anthony Raganella

“Managing Civil Unrest—Considerations for the Police Executive”

Anthony J. Raganella is the founder and president of NY Blue Line Consulting Group and a retired decorated 25-year veteran of the New York City Police Department in the rank of Deputy Inspector. His resume of achievements and professional pursuits exemplifies excellence and demonstrates what true dedication can mean to the safety and security of a large city. Describing himself as a leader that “gets involved,” Anthony has taken everything he does to the next level with a keen eye toward attention to detail and forward progress. He is considered a subject matter expert and an approved Federal court expert witness in the areas of crowd control & management, civil unrest, and major protests.

Presenter — Major (ret.) Mark Lomax

“Probability Model for Mitigating Civil Unrest and Enhancing Effective Police Response”

With over 35 years of law enforcement, leadership, and educational expertise, Mark is currently the CEO of Lancer Cobbs, a consulting firm he founded. He is also the founder and President of Bridge to Unity, a 501c (3) organization dedicated to improving police and community relationships. Recently, Mark was the Executive Director/CEO of the National Tactical Officers Association, representing over 40,000 members of the law enforcement special operations community. He served as the Association’s principal liaison to the Department of Justice, Department of Homeland Security, Department of Defense, and the White House. He also served as the Association’s legislative advocate and has testified on Capitol Hill, including the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Government Affairs and the House Armed Services Committee.
