

Guidepost

guidepostsolutions.com

To mark the occasion of our 10-year anniversary in 2020, we have committed to raise awareness about human trafficking. Traffickers transport victims via air travel to move between cities and countries and often use hotels as venues to abuse victims. As a responsible traveler, you can help stop trafficking in its tracks.

Stay Alert. Report Suspicious Activity.

National Human Trafficking Hotline 888-373-7888

TRAFFICKING TRAVEL INDICATORS

Signs of Human Trafficking

1. Minimal luggage/clothing
2. Lack of access to travel documents
3. Victim seems disoriented and lost
4. Victim lacks physical and verbal autonomy
5. Lack of adequate language skills for foreign victims
6. Trafficker is seen with many young children
7. Trafficker insists on paying solely in cash
8. Victim and trafficker have minimal interaction and eye contact with others
9. No evidence of return ticket; may have tickets to multiple destinations
10. Victim has indications of physical and emotional abuse
11. Evidence of branding on victims indicating ownership, i.e. "Daddy's girl"

OBSERVE.
REPORT.

*Take ACTION
Against Human Trafficking.*

What To Do

- BE ALERT during large gatherings, such as conventions, airports or hotels
- DO NOT confront child or adult
- ALERT management, flight attendant, or airport security
- NOTE room/seat number, names, descriptions of individuals
- In case of emergency, dial 911
- In a non-immediate situation call 888-373-7888