There will be approximately 62 exhibitors providing hands-on activities and career information for the students. Activities will begin at 9:00 am for high school students from 16 WNC counties and end at 1:00 pm each day. Approximately 600 students are expected each day for a total of 1,200 students.

Our region's construction and trades sectors are growing and Construction Career Day will highlight many local career opportunities available to WNC's future workforce. There is no charge to exhibit and this is a free event for students. Follow this event on Mountain Area Workforce Development Board social media platforms at www.mountainareaworks.org.
