The Lutheran Layman League, an auxiliary of the LCMS, was founded by 12 dedicated laymen in 1917. Later the LLL launched and still sponsors the radio program, THE LUTHERAN HOUR. The Lutheran Hour is the world's longest continuously run broadcast. The LLL are men and women coming together to assure that the GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST can be preached and proclaimed to the very ends of the earth as well as here in the United States and even in our communities. The LLL is an arm of the LCMS aiding the Synod as they extend the ministry and mission of the church, "GO YE THEREFORE, AND TEACH ALL NATIONS..." (Matthew 28:19) Former Speaker Seltz proclaimed "BOAST IN THE LORD". God has chosen us to "BOAST IN THE LORD"! Come to Park Rapids, MN at St. John Lutheran Church September 26, 2026 to grow your faith. Again, please register to attend this convention.
