Healthy Hall Awards Luncheon

Healthy Hall Awards Luncheon Thursday, March 13

11:30 am - 1:00 pm | Lanier Technical College
Recognizing Outstanding Medical Professionals

Join us as we spotlight those in the healthcare industry making significant impact on our quality of life through excellence in health and wellness. We will recognize outstanding medical professionals, and the keynote speaker is T. Sloane Guy, MD. A North Carolina native, Dr. Guy played football at Wake Forest University, earned his medical degree from the University of Pennsylvania, and completed his residency and fellowship at Penn Med. He specializes in robotic heart surgery, specifically robotic mitral valve repairs. He worked at Walter Reed National Military Medical Center and served three tours as an active duty U.S. Army trauma surgeon. He received a Bronze Star Medal and many other combat awards during his service. An award-winning physician, Dr. Guy has been named a "Top Doc" by Philadelphia magazine, New York Magazine, and U.S. News & World Report.

Nothing Bundt Cakes

Small Business of the Month

Flowery Branch residents Simon and Kristi Janman opened Nothing Bundt Cakes in 2022 at City Mill Market on Jesse Jewell Parkway. The business, founded by two women who baked out of their kitchens almost 30 years ago, carries strong values, and the Janmans have the privilege of carrying on this legacy today as a family-run business. They enjoy engaging with guests every day, and they give back generously to the community. The cakes are baked in-house daily from fresh ingredients with four sizes and 10 flavors. They specialize in all celebrations and love being an easy solution for corporate gift giving for your teams and clients. nothingbundtcakes.com
