

Arts-Focused and Creative Writing Facilitators Needed

C R E A T I V I T Y • C O N N E C T I O N • H U M A N R I G H T S

NAMI Johnson County is seeking 3 creative facilitators to explore mental health through a human rights lens for our upcoming project, Creative Minds, Human Rights.

Creative Minds, Human Rights:

This project will bring people together through art, creative writing, and self-expression to challenge the way we think about mental health and create space for connection, creativity, and conversation.

We're looking for facilitators excited to share their creative practice and to support an inclusive workshop experience. This is a paid position.

An ideal facilitator would:

- Have a passion for mental health and human rights
- Have experience or interest in art, creative writing, storytelling, or another creative practice
- Be comfortable engaging with a diverse group of participants
- Bring an inclusive and participant-centered approach

No prior facilitation experience required!

We'll provide brief on-the-job training and support to help you feel prepared to lead your workshop.

To Apply:

Email Bella Vondracek at bella.vondracek@namijc.org with:

- A brief paragraph sharing your interest in the position
- Your general availability over the next few weeks

Selected applicants will be invited to a brief Zoom meeting to learn more about the position and next steps!
