Good afternoon WGCS Parents!

I hope you and your family have had an awesome summer! Here at Walnut Grove we have been busy preparing for the start of the school year on August 12. One area that we've been reviewing and praying about over the last several months is our dress code. We understand from parent, staff, and even student feedback, that over the years it has become cumbersome to understand and follow.

As we've readdressed this critical area of our school, we have made changes to the dress code to preserve our desire for modesty (1 Timothy 2:9), allow students to continue to be creative and unique in their personal style, and make it easier for all to understand and follow.

I have attached a copy of our NEW Parent/Student Handbook. You can reference our dress code beginning on page 10. Please take time to read the introduction section that advises what is important to us in our dress code. In reviewing clothing options you will see that we did not take away clothing options, but expanded several areas.

You will also notice that after much prayer, we decided to change the Thursday/Chapel Day attire. Please pay close attention to acceptable attire on Thursdays. If you have any questions at all, please feel free to contact Sandra Varela, my new Assistant. I have listed her contact information below.
