Class Overview

It is our belief that negotiation skills are a perishable skill so continued practice is essential to becoming a skilled negotiator in the long-term. This monthly training is designed for skill improvement and to be up-to date with the latest case laws, technologies, and trends.

This is also a chance for developing interagency cooperation and support

All class instructors will be current law enforcement officers, police psychologists, mental health providers, and retired law enforcement officers with extensive expertise and experience in verbal de-escalation, hostage negotiation and crisis management
