Father-Son Trip

The Camino

Spring Break
March 8-15, 2025

This Spring Break...

Join Fr Eamonn for a once-in-a-lifetime father and son experience of the Camino de Santiago!

This profound journey is one that deepens human and spiritual relationships, develops character, and creates lasting memories.

This six-day, 115 kilometer (72 mile) pilgrimage on foot traverses Spain's most stunning countryside, and ushers you into one of the most ancient adventures of our time.

Itinerary

Saturday, March 8th

Fly into Santiago de Compostela Airport. Bus transport to Sarria.

Sunday, March 9th

Begin the Camino, exploring villages along the way (12.75 miles).

Itinerary (Cont.)

Monday, March 10th

Cross over the Minho river and hike through the hills and forests of the Galicia region (16.65 miles).

Tuesday, March 11th

Continue through the wooded paths and discover the medieval village of Ribadiso along the way (17.68 miles).

Wednesday, March 12th

Resume the journey through quiet Spanish fields and villages, taking time to explore several iconic chapels along the way (11.5 miles).

Thursday, March 13th

Complete the last leg of your journey with the legendary Santiago slowly rising into view (10.8 miles).

Friday, March 14th

Experience the city of Santiago, attend the pilgrim's mass, and receive your Compostela certificate.

Saturday, March 15th

Depart for homeland.
