Perfect for parents of students that will be high school juniors and seniors in the Fall of 2021! Register today and make it a date with your amazing college bound student!

THE CARDINAL NEWMAN SOCIETY

Promoting and Defending Faithful Catholic Education

Patrick J. Reilly founded The Cardinal Newman Society in 1993 and serves as President and CEO. The Newman Society promotes and defends faithful Catholic education by recognizing exemplary Catholic schools and colleges and advocating the Church's vision for authentic Catholic formation. Reilly also develops and teaches courses in logic, rhetoric, and philosophy for the Aquinas Learning homeschool program, founded by his wife Rosario. He and his wife have five children, including two in college.
