

Calling All Book-Loving StJPll Moms! 📖 ✨

You're invited to our next Moms Book Club Meeting on Monday, February 12. We will be discussing the incredible story of Oanh Ngo Usadi's journey from Vietnam to Texas. Discuss, connect, unwind!

When: Monday, February 12 at 7-8pm Where: SJPII School Cafeteria Who: Any SJPII mom!

Of Monkey Bridges and Bánh Mì Sandwiches: from Sài Gòn to Texas

by Ms. Oanh Ngo Usadi

In the aftermath of the Vietnam War, a young girl and her family were exiled from city living in Saigon to the countryside of Vietnam and ultimately escaped to a small town in Texas. Part travelogue, part family drama, this quietly affecting immigrant memoir will make you laugh, cry, and hungry all at the same time. Through each traumatic transition, Oanh Ngo Usadi retains her optimism as she and her family adapt to new environments and cultures in their journey to become Americans.

See you there!

RSVP

