This course includes a general introduction to Painting and the Waldorf Curriculum and will feature a 1.5 hour painting lesson introduced by a 1/2 hour talk. Coffee, drinks, snack at arrival and during break.

Peter Bruckner is an accomplished artist, lecturer, writer and puppeteer. Peter has been a painting teacher and therapeutic painter for several decades, having received his education in the Kunstgewerbe Schule, Basel, Switzerland and with Carlo Pietzner. He offers painting workshops in his studio, Windrose. Peter Bruckner was a class teacher for 17 years at the Waldorf School of Camphill Special School. He was the art teacher for grades 6-12 at the Kimberton Waldorf School, from which his three children have graduated. As a landscape painter and teacher, his travels have taken him to Iceland, Ireland, Norway, Switzerland, England, and around the States.

Peter will be working with our faculty and children during the week of September 15-21, 2018.
