During Lent our pastors will be focusing on a sermon series based on "Full to the Brim." Full to the Brim is an invitation – into a radically different Lent, into a full life. It's an invitation to be authentically who you are, to counter scarcity and injustice at every turn, to pour out even more grace wherever it is needed. It disrupts the scarcity mentality that capitalism, oppression, or hierarchy can plant inside of us. When we allow ourselves to be filled to the brim with God's lavish love, that love spills over. It reaches beyond us; like water, it rushes and flows, touching everything in its path. Full to the Brim doesn't ignore or deny sin and suffering. It doesn't absolve accountability for wrongdoing. Instead, it contextualizes our faith. If love is our beginning, how can we live our lives led by love's promises? It reminds us to live fully – as we pursue justice and hope, or express grief and gratitude. And so, this Lent, let us trust fully that we belong to God. Let us increase our capacity to receive and give grace. Let us discover the expansive life God dreams for us.
