Tony Moiso

Anthony R. Moiso is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Rancho Mission Viejo. He is responsible for the ranching, farming, planning, development, and financial management of Rancho Mission Viejo. Rancho Mission Viejo manages all activities and operations of the various Rancho Mission Viejo business enterprises.

In 1965, after serving in the U.S. Army, Mr. Moiso joined Mission Viejo Company and began his fifty-five year career as a rancher and developer of large-scale master planned communities. In 1972, when Mission Viejo Company was sold, Mr. Moiso became President of the then 42,000-acre Rancho Mission Viejo.

In 1983, Mr. Moiso established Santa Margarita Company to manage, plan, and continue the development of Rancho Mission Viejo. From 1983 until 1996, Santa Margarita Company was responsible for the master planning and development of the 5,000-acre city of Rancho Santa Margarita and the 1,000-acre planned community of Las Flores.

In 1996, Mr. Moiso founded Rancho Mission Viejo, LLC to plan and to develop the 4,000-acre community of Ladera Ranch and to continue managing, planning, and developing Rancho Mission Viejo's remaining 23,000-acres. In 2013, Rancho Mission Viejo's "Sendero" community opened and was acclaimed by the National Association of Homebuilders, the "U.S. Community of the Year"; and the Orange County Register readers named "Sendero" the "Best New Home Community" of 2014. The Ranch's community of "Esencia" opened in September 2015, was acclaimed 2016 "Master Planned Community of the Year" by the Building Industry Association - Southern California (BIA-SC) as well as "Best New Home Community" by the Orange County Register.

Mr. Moiso's personal involvements down through the years have been many. Presently, he remains a Trustee of the San Juan Capistrano Historical Society and a member of the Board of Directors of the Mission San Juan Capistrano Preservation Foundation. Moreover, he and his wife, Melinda, continue their forty-six year commitment to support the work of the Sisters Devoted to the Sacred Heart and especially to the daily operations of the Heart of Jesus Retreat Center in south Santa Ana.

Mr. Moiso is a graduate of Stanford University. He and his wife, Melinda, live in Newport Beach. The Moisos have four married daughters and thirteen grandchildren.

Adrian Foley

PRESIDENT & COO
BROOKFIELD RESIDENTIAL

As President & COO, Adrian is lending his operational expertise and deeply rooted passion for innovation to help manage Brookfield Properties' development group. Alongside a talented leadership team, he oversees the Land and Housing business and Mixed-used business lines to capitalize on the unique and growing opportunities in the North American market.

Adrian has been an integral part of Brookfield Asset Management's real estate business since 1996, when he joined [then] Brookfield Homes, eventually (in 2011) leading Brookfield Residential's California Operations.

Since, he has held several leadership roles, most recently President & COO of Brookfield Residential – one of the largest land developers and homebuilders in North America and Brookfield Asset Management's flagship residential property company – where he was directly responsible for stewarding operational objectives and implementing strategic initiatives across North America. In January 2019, Brookfield Residential merged its Land and Housing operation alongside its Mixed-use platform as one unified Development group.

Adrian was born and raised in England where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Greenwich, London.

Jon Jaffe

PRESIDENT
LENNAR

Mr. Jaffe is the President of Lennar Corporation (NYSE:LEN). In 1995, Mr. Jaffe moved to California to lead the company's expansion into that state and the West.
