

Working Wardrobes

at a Glance

What We Do

At Working Wardrobes, we do everything in our power to help individuals facing barriers to employment overcome difficult challenges so they can achieve the dignity of work. Our clients become workforce ready through career training, job placement assistance and professional wardrobing services, all provided with the utmost dignity and respect. Employed people are empowered people, and everyone deserves to experience The Power of a Paycheck™

How We Started

In 1990, Working Wardrobes founder Jerri Rosen felt compelled to make a difference in the lives of domestic violence victims. She and a few friends hosted the first-ever Day of Self Esteem, which served as a life-changing experience for 67 clients from local domestic violence shelters. This event created a foundation upon which Working Wardrobes became a thriving organization, dedicated to preparing thousands annually to re-enter the workforce.

Who We Serve

Since 1990, our independent nonprofit has helped over 119,000 individuals get workforce ready. Working Wardrobes' clients come from a diverse spectrum of circumstances and backgrounds including military service, domestic violence, addiction/recovery, justice involvement, transitional homelessness, and catastrophic illness. Working Wardrobes targets outreach efforts and provides mobile services on military bases and in correctional facilities.

How We Help

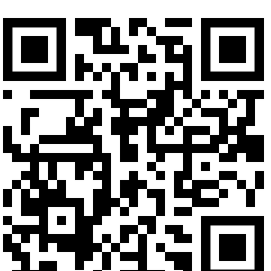

Through our Rebuilding Careers program, clients gain access to a comprehensive and effective range of job-readiness services including professional resume reviews, interview practice, job search training, certifications, linkages to supportive services, and job placement support. Every client receives an Individualized Employment Plan which addresses the unique barriers they face. Finally, we provide professional wardrobing services to help our clients dress for success!

Give today!

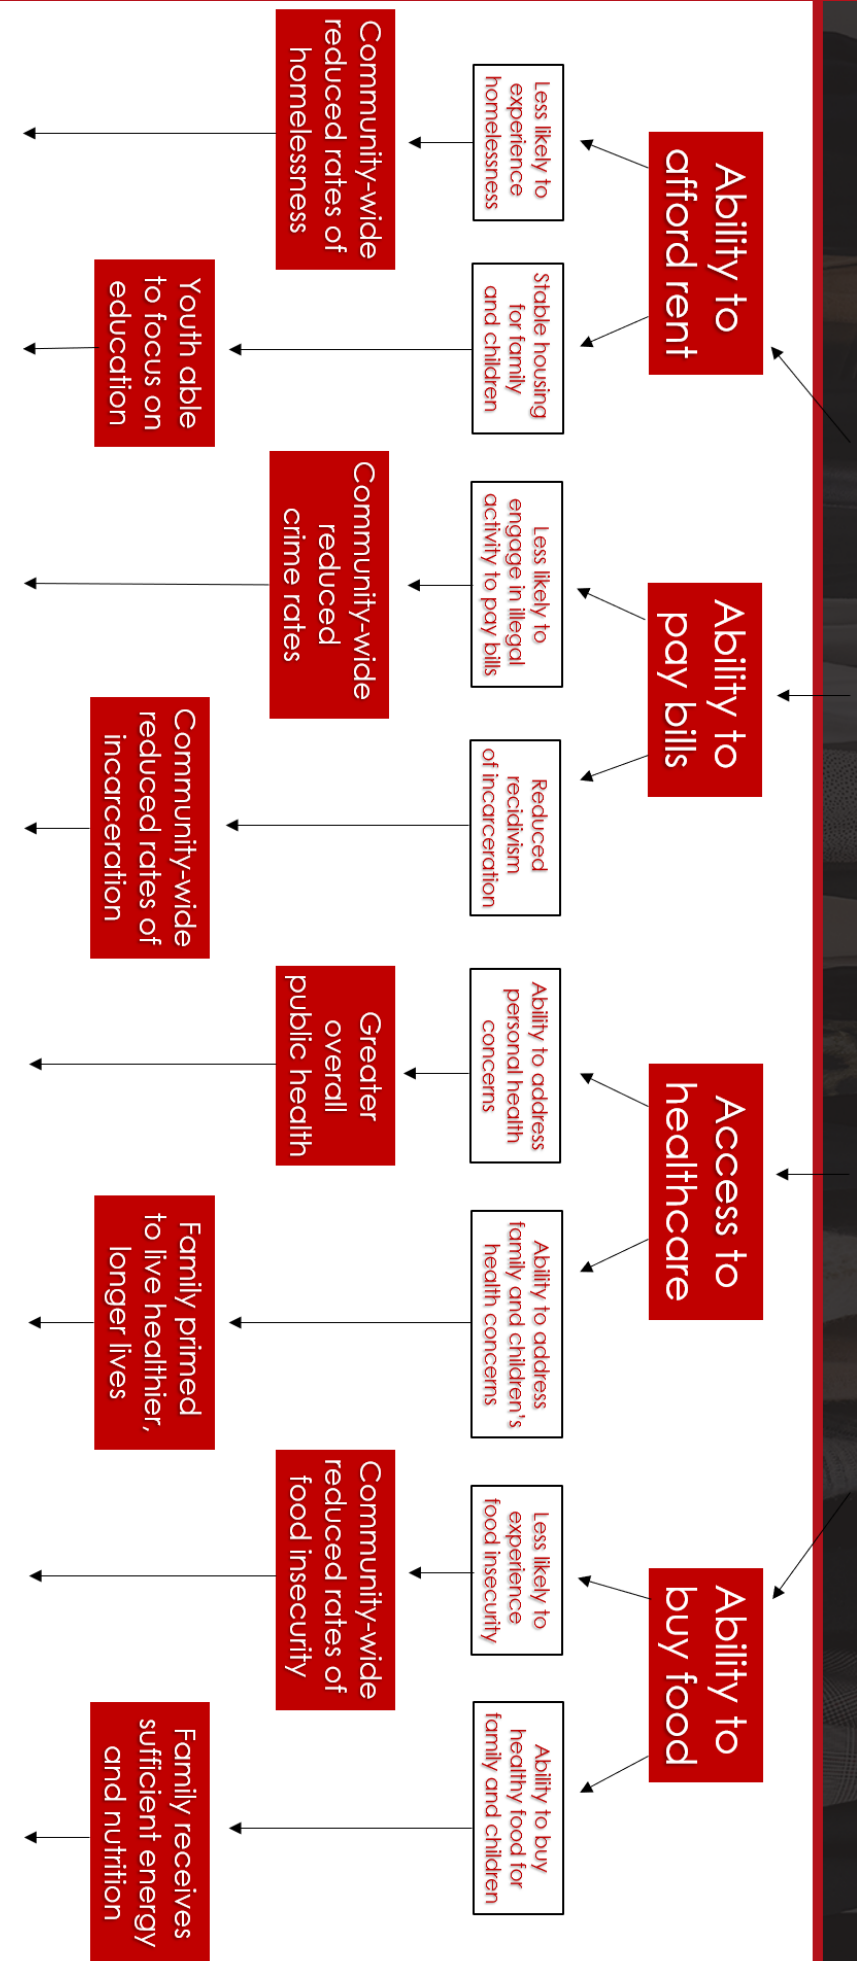

The impact of Workforce Development radiates beyond the workforce, positively impacting many aspects of societal health and wellbeing. Gainful employment begins a ripple effect that can change a person, a family, a neighborhood, a community, forever

Learn more!

GAINFUL EMPLOYMENT

A Thriving Orange County Community