Order of Worship

Transfiguration of the Lord

February 14, 2021

Prelude

Call to Worship

As God spoke, calling light out of darkness,
God's glory shines in the face of Jesus Christ.
The voice of God thunders like a mighty storm.
Out of the cloud, God speaks;
this is my beloved Son; listen to him.
Let us worship God!

Hymn 189 – See page 5.

"O Wondrous Sight, O Vision Fair" DEO GRACIAS

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

God of all glory, beauty, and grace,
we have tried to hide from you—
to hide our faces, to hide our sin—
yet you have never hidden your love for us.
We have tried to search for you—
in temples, in clouds, on mountaintops—yet you have already revealed yourself to us in the face of Jesus Christ.
Forgive us, and transfigure us so that our lives
may shine with your glory, beauty, and grace;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Our God comes and does not keep silent;
God speaks to us with grace and love, saying:
You are my beloved child.
This is the good news of the gospel:
In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.
Thanks be to God!

Life in Community

The peace and joy of the Lord be with you and yours today.
Thank you for joining us for worship.

Children's Message

Prayer for Illumination

God of shining splendor,
 your voice makes the earth tremble in wonder.
 Overshadow us with your Spirit
 so that we may hear your Word
 and live as faithful disciples and covenant people;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Scripture: Mark 9:2-9

Sermon: Fear and Awe

Offering

God is the giver of life and the source of all that is good.
 Let us now dedicate our lives and resources to the Holy One in whom we live and move and have our being.

You may give online through our website, catonsvillepres.org.

If you're not a member or friend of the CPC community,
 please consider giving to a faith community where you live,
 a neighborhood church that could use your support at this time.

In a time of silence now, let us remember and give thanks for God's gifts to us this week:
 time, talent, money, family, relationships, friends, life itself.
 Then ask yourself: where is the Spirit leading me this week to share my gifts through the work of the church and the love of neighbor?

Prayer of Dedication

We give you thanks, O God,
 for the gifts we have received from your good creation.
 We now ask your blessing upon the gifts we offer here today,
 so that they might be a sign of our commitment to serve you in all that we are and do. Amen.

Prayers of the People & Lord's Prayer

Mighty and merciful one, you have come to us in glory;
 now we come to you in prayer, saying,
 Lord, by your Spirit, grant what we ask.
 O Lord our God,
 Christ has been transfigured before us on a mountaintop.

You have revealed your way to us in Christ.
 The way of the cross and resurrection calls us to be agitators of nonviolence in our world
   in all that we do and say.
 Indeed, in the power of Christ you have enabled us to be your peace in our world.
 In Jesus' crucifixion, the violence of our world has been revealed as contrary to your way of peace.

Transfigure us by your Spirit and shape us
   by your love and justice to be disciples of Christ in our weary and broken world.
 In your Spirit, O God,
   form us in the liberating power displayed in Moses,
   in the prophetic witness of Elijah and in the body of Christ who was raised from the dead
   to bring newness of life in the church and world.

Let our lives shine like the transfigured Christ
   so that we might be a blessing to those that struggle, a hope to the dying and a sign of your new creation.
 And as we continue to struggle with this pandemic
   and the social ills it has exposed,
   we pray that you would bestow courage
   to healthcare workers and those facilitating vaccinations.
 We ask a special measure of wisdom for the leadership of our country and world that they might discern the path to bring aid to the afflicted.
 And may we be agents of your love
   for those within our churches and in our communities.
 We pray all these things in the name of Jesus Christ,
   who taught us to pray saying, Our Father...

Hymn 190 – See page 6. “Swiftly Pass the Clouds of Glory”

GENEVA

Blessing & Charge

Now go and tell, live and share the good news:
   The Lord of life and light is with us;
   Jesus Christ is risen from the dead.
 May the face of the Risen Christ shine upon you—
   God's beloved.
 May you discover in the light of Christ what you are and who you are and who you are becoming—
   God's beloved.

Moment for Scouting Speaker

Milan Unkle, 17, is serving as the Senior Patrol Leader of Troop 306. He has been a member of the Troop for five years. Milan is a senior at Catonsville High School. He loves camping, hiking, outdoor activities, and video games. He plays a variety of musical instruments, including violin, guitar, and piano. He has applied for Americorps so he can take part in service-oriented work while gaining some “real world” experiences before attending college. Milan’s parents, Hope Riley & Phil Unkle, have been actively involved in our Cub Pack & Scout Troop for many years & are both serving in leadership roles.

This translation of a 15th-century Latin devotional text is set here to a majestic 15th-century tune celebrating the victory of an English king; they combine to evoke the awe and wonder of that moment of revelation the three disciples experienced in Christ's Transfiguration.

The first two stanzas of this 20th-century Transfiguration hymn guide singers through a contemplation of the disciples' experience of that event. The final stanza becomes a corporate prayer for enlightenment and for a renewed sense of commitment to doing God's will.
