Who We Are

Faith Institute of Entrepreneurship, Inc, is a 20year old non-profit ONLINE education technology corporation, incorporated in 2003.

Faith Institute of Entrepreneurship, Inc. (FIE), was found in March, 2003 to offers train-the-trainer self-sufficiency training curriculum and to teach entrepreneurship (the mindset of owning a business) to at-risk youth and adults.

This mindset of self-sufficiency will enable at-risk youth and adults to think "making-a-job" vs. "getting-a-job".

Our 35-45 minute per module ONLINE Master Trainer Certification Workshop Series can be delivered through our online education portal at:

https://faithinstitute.digitalchalk.com/

that allows students the opportunity to study anywhere, at anytime and at their own pace or they can purchase our CD series for use in their office or at-home,

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

An effective ONLINE community trainer program will teach trainers such skills as how to facilitate an ONLINE workshop and how to help students who are having trouble learning ONLINE.

It will also teach how-to implement an ONLINE community training program once the training is completed.

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Training is often overlooked by organizations giddy with the thrill of bringing ONLINE educational materials into their office or community.

Over the years, I've seen many organizations finally embrace the idea that ONLINE community training technology can help them to achieve their mission more effectively and to better serve their constituencies.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Why Train Online Community Trainers?

But once they've managed to raise the money and buy the requisite ONLINE community educational materials and training software, they realize they didn't budget the time or money to get their staff trained so that they could get the most out of their ONLINE community training investment.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Why Train Online Community Trainers?

One of the reasons that ONLINE community training is so overlooked is that funders often view it as unnecessary.

In budgets that must be constantly reviewed and justified, the important thing, or so commonsense says, is to get any kind of ONLINE community training materials and figure out the rest along the way.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Why Train Online Community Trainers?

This is fine if everything has been thought out in advance and there are people on staff who have the expertise to make the ONLINE community training programs work.

However, what happens if that person leaves? Or what happens when ONLINE community trainer materials and technological resources (webinars) are purchased for several departments, and it's not clear how-to- use them (Live vs. virtual) and who will be the trainees to use them?

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Why Train Online Community Trainers?

These and countless other situations make developing an internal ONLINE community trainer program a smart option for nonprofits (and corporations),

By training one key person to train others in the organization, you distribute the ONLINE community training knowledge and create a repository of ONLINE community training knowledge within the organization so that no one person carries all of the organization's knowledge.

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Why Train Online Community Trainers?

An ONLINE community trainer program could involve sending one staff member to an outside training class or to take an ONLINE community trainer webinar to learn about ONLINE community training, then teaching that staff member how to train other people on staff.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Why Train Online Community Trainers?

It is important to train the ONLINE community trainer on how to teach other people so that the information can be spread effectively.

Effective ONLINE community trainer programs will teach trainers such skills as how to facilitate an online training event, how to deal with students who are having trouble with online training, and how to teach implementing an ONLINE community training program once the ONLINE community training is completed.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Why Train Online Community Trainers?

Many nonprofits work with limited resources, financially and with staffing, and do not generally have an ONLINE community trainer training department to meet their ONLINE community training needs.

Also, given budget and current health constraints, it is not always possible to send your staff members to outside ONLINE community trainer workshops.

Developing an internal ONLINE community trainer program can be empowering, and it allows organizations to become more self-sufficient.

More Reasons to Train Online Community Trainers?

Although an ONLINE community trainer program may not work for every organization, there are some great benefits.

In general, ONLINE community training is a relatively inexpensive and painless way to make the most out of your ONLINE training technology investment.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

More Reasons to Train Online Community Trainers?

While it may be possible, and at times necessary, to send staff to outside ONLINE training classes (for specialty training information that only one position may use, for example), there are compelling reasons to consider an in-house ONLINE community trainer approach:

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

More Reasons to Train Online Community Trainers?

Save money -- It is much cheaper to teach an existing staff person to train other staff members than hire someone new.

A word of caution, however, organizations often make the mistake of making people take on ONLINE community trainer responsibilities on top of their existing duties, without making any changes in these duties.

This is a sure way to burn out the very person you need to rely on.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

More Reasons to Train Online Community Trainers?

Save money --. Given that most nonprofit staff are already overworked and underpaid, it is important that some of the designated ONLINE community trainer 's existing duties be redistributed to keep the job manageable.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

More Reasons to Train Online Community Trainers?

Quickly deal with staff turnover -- Every organization has lost staff members just at the moment that they become truly proficient at their jobs.

Investing in training someone only to have him or her leave can be demoralizing.

By training internally, new staff can quickly be trained and brought up to speed on their responsibilities.

That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

More Reasons to Train Online Community Trainers?

Use training skills throughout your organization -- By training internally on all of ONLINE community training technology that an organization depends on, ONLINE community trainer's can more readily be used across the agency.

Since the ONLINE community trainer materials are always around, they can share their ONLINE training skills with different departments as needed.

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Making the Decision

While an ONLINE community trainer program can work well, there are some drawbacks.

Sometimes ONLINE community trainer programs lead to a slow degradation of skills as ONLINE community trainer's may forget the skills they were originally taught, or, having failed to properly understand the information in the first place or pass on incorrect information.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Making the Decision

Also, if you rely on one ONLINE community trainer, when the trainer leaves, there's often an even bigger hole in the organization to fill.

For this reason, it's important to document the ONLINE training process, so that a new ONLINE community trainer can assume the role without too much trouble.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Making the Decision

In addition, some organizations don't factor in the true costs of such ONLINE community trainer programs.

Although it may seem that there aren't any costs to training staff once you've trained your ONLINE community trainer, you need to consider the cost in terms of staff time.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Making the Decision

Generally, in-house staffs who are suitable ONLINE community trainer candidates can only train one to ten people at a time; but the ability to teach a larger class ONLINE for non-profits organizations (and corporations) is a true reality..

Thus, you need to factor in the reduced cost of your ONLINE community trainer 's (and trainees') time as he or she trains larger groups.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Making the Decision

When deciding whether an ONLINE community trainer is appropriate, here are some questions to ask:

Is your organization tired of losing staff members who hold critical knowledge?

Does your neighborhood or city need a free or low-cost ONLINE community training center that has a nonprofit focus?

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Making the Decision

If you answered yes to either of these questions, you should consider a ONLINE community trainer program.

This doesn't mean that you forsake other training options.

By adding our ONLINE community trainer model, you simply enhance your increased revenue and income generating resources that are now available to your organization.

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Finding Your ONLINE Community Trainer

Once the decision is made, the next step is identifying the person who will train your staff.

ONLINE community training, like other skills, is learned more easily by some than by others.

While in principle anyone can learn to become an ONLINE community trainer, you should not trust just anyone with making sure that your staff members become experts with your ONLINE training resources.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Finding Your ONLINE Community Trainer

So first make sure your ONLINE community trainer can teach, since it is true that while almost anyone can learn ONLINE training topics, it is not true that everyone can teach the ONLINE training topics learned.

There are a number of skills that a good ONLINE community trainer must possess:

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Finding Your ONLINE Community Trainer

Patience -- Patience is the most critical skill for teaching in general, and at-risk youth and adult training in particular. Most trainers are notoriously impatient people.

They will often resolve your problems without teaching you how to resolve them yourself.

This is fine for the immediate situation, but does not support the long-term empowerment of individuals or the organization.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Finding Your ONLINE Community Trainer

Facilitation skills -- A trainer, in addition to being a teacher, is also a group facilitator.

Given the diversity of ONLINE training skill levels and ability in a ONLINE training class (this can be minimized by doing a good assessment at the onset of starting any ONLINE training course and grouping like-skilled students together), the ability to work with a group of trainees is an important skill for the ONLINE community trainer to possess.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers
That's Our Specialty!

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Finding Your ONLINE Community Trainer

The ONLINE training trainer must have the ability to teach people at different skill levels -- Remember that ONLINE training can be intimidating, especially to novices.

If you move too fast or do not explain the information in a language that is familiar to the students, you will lose them.

Using analogies that are relevant to student's everyday life and inserting generous doses of humor are invaluable ways to make students feel comfortable with ONLINE training.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Finding Your ONLINE Community Trainer

In general, you want to find an ONLINE community trainer who has a knack for explaining the ONLINE training topic rather than someone who is simply "an information distributor".

Once you have an ONLINE community trainer, the next step is training him or her to become a ONLINE community trainer of others.

This is not as big a leap as finding an ONLINE community trainer, but remember that training an ONLINE community trainer is less about teaching ONLINE training subjects and more about teaching someone to teach.

We Train ONLINE Community Trainers

Why Train ONLINE Community Trainers?

Finding Your ONLINE Community Trainer

One important point to remember is that ONLINE community training is an ongoing learning experience.

That is the beauty of teaching ONLINE community training - you are always in a position to learn. If you find that ONLINE community trainer - then you have found a gold mine.
