The Fellowship/Berean class is an adult men's class that includes Bible study ("Explore the Bible" Lifeway curriculum), contributing to church ministries, helping the hungry, and visiting the homebound. It meets in room 131 (across from the church office) and is led by Mark Olsen.

The Pete Creasy class is a senior adult class (men and women) that focuses on the understanding of God's word and how it can be applied to everyday life situations. It meets in the gym (2nd floor of the New Ministries Building) and is led by Billy Meador and Wayne Sink.

The Esther class is an older ladies' class which uses the Smyth-Helwys Formations Bible study curriculum. Members participate in monthly ministry projects and provide prayer support for one another and others. It meets in rooms 111-112 and is taught by Becky Caldwell and Belinda Williams.

Sunday School is offered weekly at 9:15 AM.

The LOA class is made up of senior adult ladies who study through the Bible, book by book, using the "Explore the Bible" curriculum. It meets in room 101 and is led by Loretta Pedigo.

The Dorcas class uses "Explore the Bible" quarterlies and topical studies. It is a caring coed group that believes in prayer, helping others, and the marvelous miracles of God. It is active in the life of the church and offers fellowship opportunities. It meets in room 110 and is led by Joy Wright.
