

Upon recommendation from the Human Resources Committee, a change in the Employee Handbook is required to meet the Virginia Department of Labor guidelines:

Employees who work a minimum of 35 hours per week are considered permanent, full-time employees. Employees that work 34 or less hours per week are considered part-time employees.