

GOPAL D. PATEL

Faith, Science, and Action for the Earth

Cape Cod Speaking Tour

Gopal D. Patel is a globally recognized faith-based environmental activist, keynote speaker, and United Nations consultant whose work connects climate change, ocean conservation, ecosystem restoration, biodiversity protection, and faith-based partnerships.

Join him for three Cape Cod events exploring how religious traditions, science, and civic engagement can inspire climate action and shared responsibility for the Earth.

THREE STOPS • MAY 17–19

SUNDAY, MAY 17

Beginning at 10:30 am

Unitarian Church of Barnstable

3330 Main St (Rt. 6A), Barnstable, MA

“From the Ganges to Walden to Cape Cod: How Water Connects Us Through Culture and Time”

10:30 am Morning Service Reflection
Noon–1:30 pm Luncheon & Panel: “Hope, Responsibility, and Action: Spiritual and Religious Voices Rising for the Earth”

MONDAY, MAY 18

4:00 pm

St. Joseph’s Chapel

33 Millfield St., Woods Hole, MA

“Sacred Seas, Shared Science: Faith and Research United for Ocean Protection”

Interview with researcher and science journalist Dr. Heather Goldstone on faith, science, and global ocean protection.

TUESDAY, MAY 19

5:30 pm

Brewster Ladies Library

1822 Main St (Rt. 6A), Brewster, MA

“Hope, Responsibility, and Action: Employing Our Voices for the Earth”

A conversation with author Jeffrey Odell Korgen on grassroots voices, interfaith collaboration, and civic engagement. Refreshments served.

Free Admission • All Are Welcome

Hosted and sponsored by local faith and environmental partners, including Nauset Interfaith Association, Faith Communities Environmental Network, and MA Interfaith Power & Light.