CEA/ AEA Director Reports:

Donna Inman: AEA Report – Art Davis said there are over 6,000 bills to review. Topics discussed included the emergence of artificial intelligence in the industry. All Reports can be found on the AEA website.

Tricia Vagt: Attended the Nor Cal Conference. Digital closings are coming. They create a better closing experience for the consumer. Paperless recordings are also coming soon. There will be more information in the newsletter.

Juliana Tu: Attended the National Settlement Summit (S3). There is more compliance coming. CEA was invited to D.C. to discuss FINCEN. It looks like FINCEN is not here to stay, but it will be around for a couple more years.
Vanessa James: Report on Cannabis and real estate transactions; cannabis is still a federal felony, but the federal government does not have the resources to enforce the laws. Most title companies will not insure cannabis related transactions. Money received from a cannabis related real estate transaction can be considered money laundering.

Raffle: Bottle Auction: Bedazzled bottle was won by Debbie for $85.00.

Julian Tu introduces Gov Hutchinson ““Have you Heard about the Changes to the CAR Contract?”

Topics included incomplete forms to the CAR do not count as being received and this can affect the contingency period.

CAR has a new Amendment Form which has a 3-day time limit.

There are now wild fire advisories and disclosures letting potential buyers know that there may be cameras on the property.

Adjourn Meeting @ 8:40 p.m.

Raffles.
