Dear Friends,

We are happy to announce an exciting pilgrimage to Greece and Ephesus, in Turkey, where we will reflect on the life and journeys of St. Paul. In Athens, Ephesus, and Corinth, we will consider his bold mission before cultures rich in history, science, the arts, politics, and religious practices. In Ephesus, we will pray at the "House of Mary." On the island of Patmos, we will visit the site where St. John experienced an extraordinary vision in which he was directed to write down his experiences as the Book of Revelation.

Our three-day Greek Islands cruise, including visits to the beautiful islands of Mykonos and Santorini, will bring us through the deep blue and tranquil waters of the Aegean Sea. The voyage will offer time for recreation, reflection, and the enjoyment of the beauty of nature.

Join us on this unique pilgrimage of discovery, faith, reflection, and celebration! May the experiences of St. Paul, St. John, all the early saints whose memories we shall encounter, and, of course the grace-filled "yes" of the Virgin Mary, inflame our hearts with a greater desire to bear witness to the presence of the crucified and risen Jesus in our world!

Fr. Tom Kreidler & Dave Auxier

This pilgrimage entails a lot of walking, stairs, hills, cobblestone roads, etc. Participants must be medically and physically fit for this type of travel. Package inclusions do not always meet the special needs of travelers with limited mobility or severe allergies. Day 2 Monday, October 11: Arrive in Athens

This afternoon, arrive at Athens International Airport, go through Customs, claim our luggage, and meet a Peter's Way tour manager as we exit baggage claim. Board our private touring bus and we will be on our way to Athens, the most important city-state in ancient Greece and the capital of modern Greece since 1834. In the New Testament times, Athens was the intellectual capital of the Mediterranean world. Check-in at our hotel in Athens.
Dinner and overnight at our hotel in Athens. (B,L,D)

Day 3 Tuesday, October 12: Athens

Breakfast at our hotel. Begin our day with Mass at Sacred Heart Church in Athens. After Mass, we'll explore the most famous sites in Greece: the Athens Acropolis and famed Parthenon. Visit Mars Hill, where Paul addressed the councilors and philosophers of the Areopagus. Continue our Athens orientation tour, passing by the Olympic Stadium of 1896, the Temple of Zeus, the Royal Palace, Syndagma Square, the Memorial to the Unknown Soldiers, the Arch of Hadrian, Hadrian's Wall, the Olympic Complex of the 2004 Games, and the Academy University National Library.

Day 4 Wednesday, October 13: Delphi

Breakfast at our hotel. This morning, we'll leave Athens for our full-day tour to explore Delphi's impressive archeological site on the slopes of Mount Parnassos, associated with the mythology and history of the "Oracle of Delphi." The awesome natural landscape makes it easy to understand why the ancient Greeks considered this a most sacred site. Amongst the many points of interest, we will climb to the Sanctuary of Apollo, the Doric Temple of Apollo, the Sacred Way, the 5,000-seat theater where the Delphic Festivals were held, and the stadium where the Pythian Games took place every four years. In the museum we will examine a number of significant treasures. Nearby we will see the Kastalian Fountain, the Sanctuary of Athena, and the Tholos of the Rotunda.
Independent lunch in Delphi. This afternoon, return to Athens.
Dinner and overnight at our hotel in Athens. (B,D)

Day 5 Thursday, October 14: Byzantine and Christian Museum

It was founded in 1914 and houses more than 25,000 exhibits with rare collections of pictures, scriptures, frescoes, pottery, fabrics, manuscripts, and copies of artifacts from the third century to the late medieval era. It is one of the most important museums in the world in Byzantine Art. Continue to visit the Plaka, a lively historic neighborhood nestled at the foot of the Acropolis.
Independent lunch. Free afternoon to explore Athens on your own.
This evening, feast on local cuisine and enjoy fine wine in a traditional tavern while Greek entertainment creates a wonderful ambiance around us.
Overnight at our hotel in Athens. (B,D)

Day 6 Friday, October 15: Aegean Greek Islands Cruise | Mykonos

Breakfast at our hotel. This morning we will be transferred to St. Paul Church in Piraeus for morning Mass. After Mass, we will travel to Piraeus Harbor in time for the 11:30 a.m. boarding of the cruise ship Celestyal Olympia. Lunch on board is included.
Arrive in Mykonos, a paradise island known for its nightlife, beautiful beaches, boutiques, and cuisine. This Greek island has hundreds of tiny chapels dotting the landscape and sheep grazing in the shadow of white washed windmills. While on Mykonos, you are free to explore on your own.
Dinner and overnight aboard Celestyal Olympia. (B,L,D)

Day 7 Saturday, October 16: Cruise to Kusadasi | Ephesus | Patmos | Overnight Sail to Crete

Arrive in Kusadasi. Disembark and travel by bus to Ephesus, the best preserved of the Seven Churches of Revelation (Rev. 2.1-7). St. Paul made Ephesus his headquarters for over two years and wrote his First Letter to the Corinthians from here. Later in the first century, St. John ministered here for many years. We will visit the ancient city with its impressive temples, marble streets, library, agoras, baths, and theater that seats 24,000 people. We will also visit the House of the Virgin Mary—one tradition says this is the place where St. John brought Mary after the Death and Resurrection of Jesus. A small house was built for her on Bulbuldagi (Mt. Nightingale) where she spent the last days of her earthly life. Visit the beautiful chapel Panaya Kapula, also known as "The House of the Virgin Mary," built on Mt. Setimisses. Pope Benedict XVI celebrated Mass here in 2006, as did Pope Paul VI and St. John Paul II before him. Celebrate Mass at the House of the Virgin Mary.
Sail to Patmos. Arrive near the island of Patmos, and transfer by boat to the "Holy Island" known as the site of the apocalyptic Revelation of John, written here during his exile from the Roman Empire. The cave where St. John lived is near the site of the Monastery of the Apocalypse. Visit the Monastery of St. John, built on one of the island's highest points, which houses priceless icons.
All meals and overnight aboard Celestyal Olympia. (B,L,D)

Day 8 Sunday, October 17: Heraklion (Crete) | Santorini | Overnight Sail to Piraeus

Arrive in Heraklion, the capital of Crete and its principal commercial port. Travel to the nearby fantastic ruins of the Palace of Knossos. Discovered in 1899 by Sir Arthur Evans, this elaborate palace was the seat of ancient Minoan culture, which flourished in the 18th century B.C. Celebrate Sunday Mass at a church in Crete.
Afternoon sail to Santorini. Arrive in Santorini, the island which some believe to be the site of the lost city of Atlantis. Optional excursion on Santorini is not included. Spend free time in the village of Fira, perched on the rim of a crater formed by a volcano that destroyed the island in about 1630 B.C. Take the cable car to the top or ride a donkey up a zigzag path. There are many interesting shops, and it is easy to find a cafe or taverna that has a spectacular view. This evening, sail overnight to Piraeus Harbor in Athens.

Day 9 Monday, October 18: Piraeus | Corinth | Cenchreae | Athens

Dock at Piraeus. After an early breakfast, disembark and begin our day with an excursion to Corinth (Acts 18.1-18). Stop briefly en route to see the Corinth Canal, the famous man-made construction named one of the Seven Wonders of the Modern World. Continue to Corinth, where St. Paul wrote the First Letter to the Thessalonians and, most likely, his Letter to the Romans. Explore the extensive archeological site, including the Temple of Apollo, the Roman Agora, and the Bema—where Paul's enemies brought him before Gallo. See the pavement inscription of Erastus, the Roman Lechaion Road, the lower Fountain of Peirene, and the imposing Acrocorinth, an 1,800-foot hill that rises high above the ancient city. Here, in the first century, there were a large number of shrines and temples dominated by the Temple of Aphrodite. It was also the location of a series of fortifications built during ancient and medieval times that continued through the successive chain of Franco, Byzantine, Venetian, and Turkish supremacy. Celebrate Mass outdoors in Corinth. Independent lunch.
We'll continue to Cenchreae, the capital of the most powerful, brilliant, and sovereign influence in Greece for several centuries. We will enter Mycenae through the impressive Lion Gate, the oldest example of monumental sculpture in Europe. Inside the walls, excavations have uncovered the palace complex, a grave circle with six royal tombs, courtiers' houses, sanctuaries, and other important buildings. We will also visit the recently opened museum, which houses an excellent collection of artifacts related to the Mycenaean Empire. We will pass the old harbor of Cenchreae, from which Paul sailed to Ephesus. After our visit we'll continue to Athens for hotel check-in.
Dinner and overnight at our hotel in Athens. (B,D)

Day 10 Tuesday, October 19: Return to the USA

Early morning, we will be transferred to Athens International Airport for our return flight to the USA.
