10:00 am Tour of Shinola Watch and Leather Factory - Shinola is a Detroit-based luxury design brand with an unwavering commitment to crafting products that are built to last - from timepieces to leather goods, jewelry to audio. Founded in 2011, we operate an in house watch and leather factory located on the fifth floor of the historic Argonaut Building, where our team of artisans hand assemble luxury timepieces and craft premium leather straps. Through skilled training, we create opportunities for our team members and support the local workforce by partnering with legacy companies across the country to manufacture specialty items. With quality as our foundation, we celebrate thoughtful design and beauty of the industry through every product we make. This 90 minute tour will take you through our manufacturing facility to meet some of the artisans, you will love this tour.

12:00pm Lunch in the Apparatus Room at the newly restored Fire Station Headquarters - The Apparatus Room, aptly named after its original purpose as the fire department headquarters to house fire engines, is an inviting space punctuated by a central communal bar and anchored by an open kitchen. As guests enter the space they will be wowed by a beautiful massive chandelier with intricate, custom glass blown fixtures. The menu delivers classic American fare with Executive Chef Thomas Lents at the helm. Dishes feature locally sourced and seasonal ingredients.

1:30-3:00pm See the "D" Tour - Detroit is popping up on all kinds of travel lists as THE place to see. Find out what all the buzz is about on a narrated "See The D" bus tour. Your passionate and informative guide will point out Detroit's crown jewels, legendary landmarks, and vibrant street art while regaling you with tales of Detroit's fascinating history and show casing the hip new developments. Quick photo op stops are made at several iconic sites.
