Join IYSA, in partnership with Peace Learning Center, to partake in an experiential training to prepare after school educators, youth workers, and community members to develop a caring learning environment and to reach and teach children and youth through an active learning approach that promotes human development, resiliency, and SEL.

5 COURSES AVAILABLE

Register for the one best suited for your schedule.

WHY YOU WANT IT:

Participants will learn to use the community building process of Tribes as the foundation for transforming youth-serving environments to one in which group facilitation and Tribes strategies are effective in reaching and teaching children and youth. Using multiple intelligences, brain compatible learning and cooperative methods, the community learning center climate and staff awareness will begin to reflect the message of life-long learning, personal development, and social responsibility as the keys to success in the 21st Century.

HOW IT WORKS:

Participants experience learning strategies and evaluate how to apply to age/grade/subject specific youth serving situations. Also included is a copy of the the book, Reaching All by Creating Tribes Learning Communities, by Jeanne Gibbs, a Certificate of Completion, and the materials needed to enable you to implement the process in your own communities.

Expectations

Participants have a choice to attend 90 minute discussion groups OR complete assignments, in writing, through a private forum.

All 2-hour Zoom meetings are required for all participants.

For each class (except course 3 and 4) participants can choose to:

- attend 4 Zoom meetings and use the forum to complete assignments in writing,
OR
- attend 8 Zoom meetings with no written assignments.

For courses 1, 2, and 5:

Zoom discussion meetings are held from 11am – 12:30pmEST

Zoom class meetings are held from 11am – 1pmEST

Please register AT LEAST two weeks before the course is scheduled to begin to ensure adequate shipping time is given.
