HCC Kids Worship Bulletin "The Power of His Love!"

Scripture: John 12:31-36

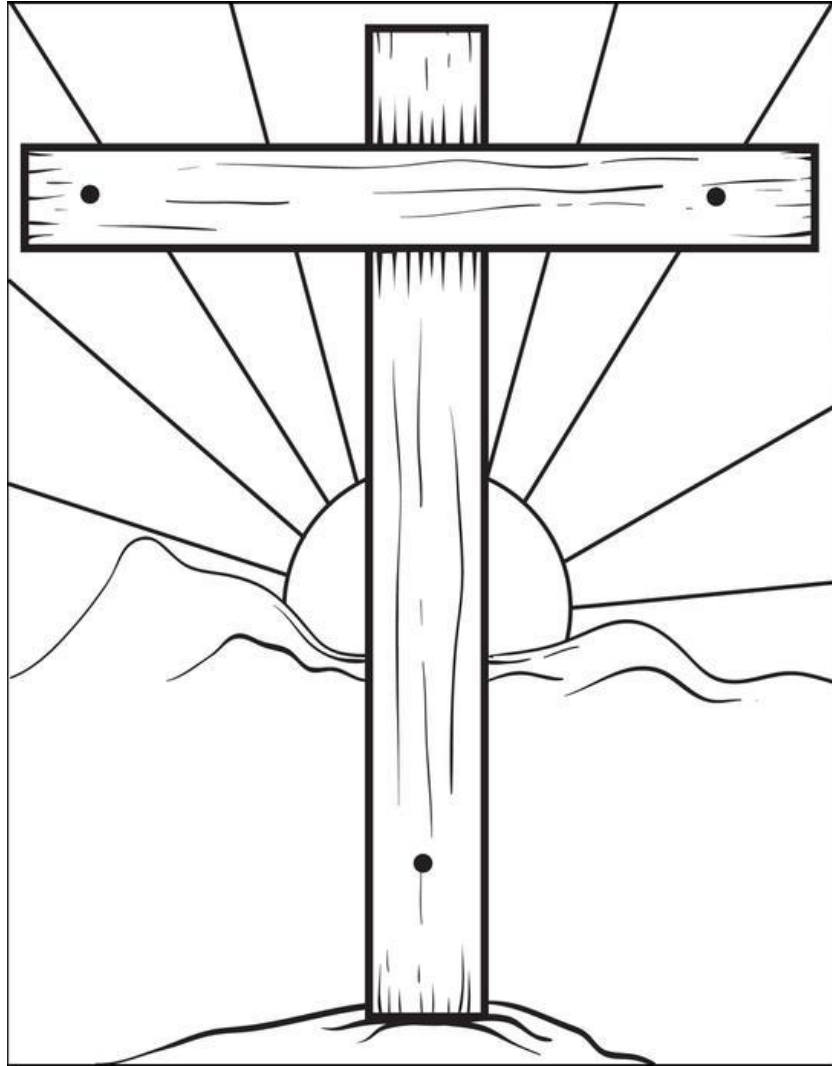

Have you ever played with a magnet to see how many things you could pick up at once? This reminds me of our Gospel reading today! Jesus said, "And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself." The drawing power of a magnet is very strong, but it's nothing compared to the drawing power of Jesus. Knowing Jesus and His great love for us draws us to Him. When we are close to Jesus, this makes Him so pleased! His love brings us comfort, peace, forgiveness, and eternal life! Jesus willingly died on the cross for us, and in this reading, He is letting the people know that although He is going to die, he will rise again, and one day take all of God's children with Him. There is no power stronger than the love of Jesus! Not even death!
