Scripture: Matthew 16: 19-24

Do you have a collection of things that are special to you? Maybe you collect rocks, stuffed animals, squishies, or even bugs! In today's Gospel reading, Jesus wants us to know how important it is not to make those "treasures" more important than the things that are most important to God. What are "treasures" to God? Well, for one... you! Your relationship with Jesus is His greatest treasure and it should be your's too! Jesus loves us so much he wants that love to spill out onto others! Loving our neighbor, helping people less fortunate than us, praying, even for our enemies, are all treasures that we can store up for heaven instead of in a treasure box! What about God's word? Is that a treasure? You bet! You can store God's word in your heart and that's a much better place for it to live than on a shelf. 😊 Our greatest treasures can't be put in a box, or on a shelf. Our greatest treasures come from being obedient to God, reading His Word, and following His plan for our lives. Those are treasures we will never outgrow! They can't be broken, lost, or destroyed. They are eternal, just like God's love for us- the Greatest Treasure of all! 😊
