"The Entrance of the King!"

Scripture: Matthew 21: 1-11

Today is Palm Sunday! It's the day we celebrate King Jesus entering into Jerusalem on a donkey! The people wanted to welcome their King in a special way, so they placed Palm Branches and even their own coats on the ground to line Jesus' path. They shouted "Hosanna!" which means "to save." The people knew Jesus was their Savior, and they shouted that word with great joy because they knew salvation was coming. We know, as we heard in the Gospel Reading today, that this is not the end of the story. Jesus was arrested and nailed to a cross. It is hard to think about how our King suffered on the cross. It makes us sad to know that Jesus had to die, but that's still not the end of the story. There's Good News! We celebrate that Good News on Easter Sunday!

Ms. KB's Super Sunday question: What is that Good News? If you're not sure, ask a family member, or a teacher at church, or a priest. If you know the Good News, that's great! Share it with someone!
