

Jeffrey E. Jaeger is the Co-Founder and Principal of Standard Companies, a full-service investment and asset management firm founded in 2008 that has completed more than $2.0 billion in transactions through its Standard Communities, Standard Capital, Exponent Energy and Global Guaranty Insurance Divisions. Mr. Jaeger manages all aspects of investments, asset management, construction, financial structuring and corporate strategy for Standard Communities, the affordable housing division of Standard Companies. Over the last 20 years, he has played an integral role in the acquisition, management, disposition and financing of real estate and energy transactions with capitalization in excess of $5 billion.

Mr. Jaeger is a Co-Founder and current Board Member of Housing on Merit, a California-based nonprofit focused on providing housing to homeless female veterans. He is also a current Board Member of Inner-City Arts, one of the nations most effective arts education providers located in the heart of LA's Skid Row.

Mr. Jaeger holds a Bachelor of Arts from the University of California, Berkeley.