

Brett McCosham, Human Resources Coordinator, Pension and Benefits

Currently a part time Student at Fanshawe for Human Resources, Brett has joined the Human Resources team with great knowledge in a variety of sectors. He has worked as a Claims Specialist most recently however shared a past role as a Human Resources Assistant for the Municipality of Strathroy-Caradoc. His passion for Human Resources also transfers to new and current students as a Career Peer at Fanshawe.

Originally from Prince Edward Island, Brett arrived in London in 2011. He was drawn to Cheshire on a personal level, Brett has three brothers with disabilities. Brett believes that coming to Cheshire he can relate to the challenges people with disabilities face and finds working with us a good opportunity to use his skills. As he shared "it's a company to feel at home with" as we often call ourselves "The Cheshire Family" he is a true fit!

Brett shares his home with his wife of 2 years and two cats, Echo and Fiona. He is an avid reader, gamer and Netflix binger. Brett and his wife are excited to go the Barcelona this summer, it is his first time out of Canada. They hope to continue to travel more in the future.

Welcome to Cheshire Brett!
