

CALL FOR ARTISTS

SHOW: "A Celebration of Community Creativity"

Virtual Exhibit Dates: May 25 - August 13

We thank Carla and Jeff Meberg for generously underwriting 2021 Gallery Q exhibitions.

Virtual Art Exhibit Application

Exhibit is open to all LOCA past & present members, students, teachers, board members, participants & supporters

- * Open to all forms of art work created within the last 24 months. This may include collage, print making, multi-media, paintings, drawing, sculpture, ceramics, relief, mosaics, jewelry, textiles & photography
- * "A Celebration of Community Creativity" will be advertised on social media, on websites, e-blasts, newsletters, press releases & newspaper articles.
- * To apply for FREE inclusion to Gallery Q's exhibit please e-mail to: judybaker@thesusiq.org no later than FRIDAY MAY 21, the following information:
 - A brief one paragraph summary about you, the artist
 - The title, medium and price (or "not for sale) for each pieceYou may submit up to 3 art pieces
- Your email address for potential buyers to contact you
- You may also include your art website link, information on how you created your artwork, stories behind your creation, and a photo of you, the artist, etc.
- Send as a separate attachment a high resolution photograph of each art piece, with title

*All work will be accepted unless determined inappropriate by the art committee. Space is limited to the first 30 artists with priority given to current LOCA members. Membership must be current or join by May 17, 2021 by visiting www.locaarts.org/membership

TO VIEW EXHIBITS at Gallery Q, visit www.thesusiq.org OR www.galleryq.org.