

Saint Agnes Lower School Book Fair

October 24

Lower School Library

Book Fair Hours

Thursday, October 24
11:00am to 7:00pm

Great Middle Grade Novels

We've got a terrific selection of new titles for chapter book readers, like the new Flashback Four: Hamilton-Burr Duel and Mice of the Round Table, I Survived the Great Molasses Flood and The Vanderbeekers to the Rescue. Lots of great choices for beginning readers too!

"Books fall open, you fall in,
delighted where you've never been."

—David T.W. McCord

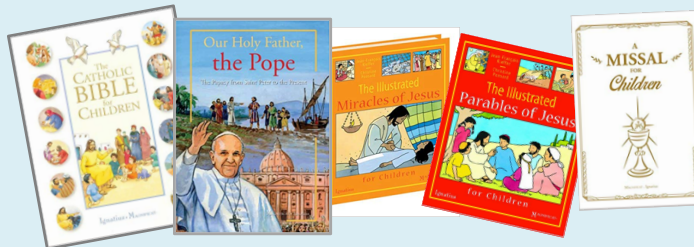

It's Book Fair Time!

The days are getting shorter, the weather is getting cooler, and pretty soon it will be the perfect season to curl up with a good book! Plan to stop by the Lower School Library to browse the Saint Agnes Book Fair. You can stock up on great reads the whole family will enjoy -- from Aesop's fables and fairy tales, to early chapter books and middle grade novels -- plus timeless picture books, poetry collections, and old favorites too!

Catholic Education

Our books are provided by Red Wagon Books, a local book vendor that brings the highest quality hand-selected titles, both new and timeless, to school book fairs. Students will be able to take books home the day of the fair, and Saint Agnes School will receive a percentage of the book sales to support the library.
