

Khadija Hansia-Gibson Bio - 9/24/20

Khadija was born and raised in Mill Valley, California. She loves the sleepy town and attended local schools. She attended San Francisco State University with a major in International Relations. Khadija resides in Mill Valley with her husband and son. She's expecting again and is looking forward to being surprised at birth regarding the gender! Khadija currently runs her own wedding and event planning business, Limelight Productions and enjoys volunteering at the Islamic Center of Mill Valley. Khadija has spoken at rallies, protests, vigils and more on behalf of the Islamic Center of Mill Valley to promote racial justice, equality and dispelling negative Muslim stereotypes. Khadija served on the Marin Interfaith Board for 6 years and is currently on the board for Marin Recovers and the Mill Valley Library Foundation. Khadija loves to travel to understand cultures, is a mother to 3 furry cats and needs something sweet after every meal. Khadija is itching to travel post COVID! Aren't we all?
