Arts Minds

connecting art & well-being

Engaging Arts & Minds: A Professional Development Program

Join us for our next 12-week asynchronous online session!

Fall Session: September 16 - December 4, 2026

You will gain the foundations of the Arts & Minds approach through recorded slide talks, selected readings, recorded programs, thought-provoking exercises, interactive discussion posts, and 3 live meetings with A&M teaching staff.

Engaging Arts & Minds: Foundations

Introduction to Alzheimer's Disease and Related Dementias. Slide talk by Columbia Neurologist James M. Noble MD.

Understanding the needs of people living with dementia and their care partners.

Arts & Minds approach to in-the-moment conversations about art and objects (adaptable for science, history, and living collections).

Arts & Minds approach to creative and accessible art making.

Planning and implementing your cultural program. Learn to build uplifting creative, social, and cognitive experiences for people with memory loss and their caregivers.

For more information about training for teams and individuals or to register:

artsandminds.org/training
info@artsandminds.org

© Arts & Minds, James M Noble MD and Carolyn Halpin-Healy, co-founders