

The Most Expensive Martini in the World

So, here's the story:

“Ask Lucas in the Fumoir to make you a Martini. Enjoy it. Ask Lucas to make you a second one. Enjoy it again. If you ask Lucas to make you a third Martini, you have no option but to stay at the hotel, thus making it the most expensive Martini in the world. Both the cocktail and the room will be worth it, though – fair warning.” (from Claridge's The Cookbook)
