

FREE SUPPORT FOR YOUTH-SERVING ORGANIZATIONS IN ENGLEWOOD

Creating Safer, More Connected Communities For Youth

Interactive Workshops

Facilitated sessions for your organization + youth in your program. Focused on communication, trust, and navigating conflict.

Ongoing Collaborative Support

Join a network of community members with school teams and local organizations. Apply what you've learned and stay connected beyond the workshops.

Simple, Practical Tools

Strategies you can use right away to strengthen relationships and team culture.

Dedicated Time for Your Team

Space to reflect, reset, and reconnect with each other and your work.

What This Opportunity Offers

Join a new NO-COST collective of schools, community organizations, and families all in service of Englewood's youth funded by the Chicago Department of Public Health.

We partner with your team and school teams to strengthen how you work together, communicate, and respond to challenges, especially in dynamic environments.

Why This Matters

The work you do is demanding.

Strong relationships in the community make a difference in how challenges are handled, how people feel, and how communities experience care.

Who is Eligible?

Nonprofit and grassroots organizations in the Englewood neighborhood who are interested in learning more about restorative practices and community building.

About NewRoot

NewRoot Learning Institute partners with organizations to strengthen relationships, build trust, and support teams in creating more connected and responsive environments.

Learn more at newroot.org

INTERESTED IN BRINGING THIS SUPPORT TO YOUR TEAM?

REACH OUT TO THE CONTACT BELOW OR SCAN THE QR CODE:

- Kristin Moore
NewRoot Chief of Programs + Impact
- kristin@newroot.org
- (312) 600-8404

SCAN FOR INTEREST FORM

